IDIR ALIAS HAMID CHERIET WAS A GREAT ICON FRENCH ALGERIE BERBERE DE KABYLIE-----

IDIR, whose real name is Hamid Cheriet, was born on October 25, 1949 in Aït Lahcene, near Tizi-Ouzou, capital of Grande-Kabylie. While he intended to be a geologist, a passage in 1973 on Radio Alger changes the course of his life. He replaced the singer Nouara at short notice, and his song in the Berber language "A Vava Inouva"[?], which evokes evenings in Kabyle villages, went around the world without his knowledge while he was doing his military service. "I arrived at the right time, with the right songs", told AFP Idir in 2013, imbued with childhood songs that punctuated all the moments of everyday life. He joined Paris in 1975 to produce his first album, also entitled A Vava Inouva. He disappeared from the scene for ten years, from 1981 to 1991, but his career was then relaunched. Idiot, had an international career continued with the opening up to various musical horizons, across the festivals and gave many concerts worldwide. Source : AFP
